

Study Abroad in Paris, France!

Join the School of Communication on a study abroad experience at NOVANCIA, a state-of-the-art business & communication school in Paris, France!

Apply by March 1, 2016

Student Experience

- Classes taught by French professors in English
- Includes a day trip to Chartres, Normandy & the Loire Valley (castle & chateau region) and a boat tour of the Seine River

Prerequisites

- Program is for ISU students only
- Open to all communication majors and minors
- Minimum GPA of 2.7
- Completed at least 39 hours of coursework

Academics

- Program runs 4 weeks, mid-May through mid-June annually
- Communication majors and minors will receive 6hrs. of course credit: COM 369 and COM 372

Cost

- Approximately $7500 - $8,000 (includes ALL student expenses & tuition)
- Financial aid is available to those who qualify; scholarships available

How to Apply

- Make an appointment with your Academic Advisor
- Make an appointment with Haley Thompson in the Study Abroad Office

For more information, contact the School of Communication
Academic Advising Center:

Kristen Presley, Faculty Director
kmpresl@ilstu.edu

(309) 438-7080

Julie Navickas, Faculty Director
janavic@ilstu.edu